

Career Opportunities with International Risk Ltd (www.intl-risk.com)

International Risk is the Premier International Risk Mitigation and Investigation Business

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of New York Stock Exchange Listed FTI Consulting Inc. International Risk has offices in Hong Kong, Tokyo, Singapore, Beijing and our holding company has 25 offices in the USA and a global presence.

International Risk is expanding its existing Asian business.

The company focuses mainly on investigative due diligence, business intelligence, fraud investigation and political risk reporting for MNC clients operating globally.

Consistent with our growth plan, we have the following vacancies:

SENIOR PROJECT MANAGERS

Responsibilities will include:

- Conducting complex projects throughout the Asia-Pacific region;
- Working closely with in-house investigative professionals and research staff;
- Report writing and presentations;
- Business development and marketing activities;
- Day-to-day management activities.

Applicants should have:

- In-depth investigative experience in the commercial crime or risk mitigation field or;
- Served in a senior position in law enforcement or in the legal field;
- The ability to operate independently and to lead investigative task forces where necessary;
- A keen interest in fraud, business intelligence and due diligence work;
- Ability to generate revenue and to promote the company.

In the position above, candidates will require an outgoing personality, the ability to operate independently, where necessary and excellent interpersonal and communication skills.

A competitive remuneration package will be offered to the successful candidates of the required experience and calibre. Please supply your curriculum vitae in confidence to recruit@intl-risk.com.